SOMETHING SPECIAL IS HAPPENING AT SILVIES VALLEY RANCH*

(*PNGA members receive $100 off. Oh, and 'Goat Caddies' are available!)

The image of the American West brings to mind renegade spirits who value straight-forwardness, tradition, resilience and a comedic sense of relaxation. For the traveler seeking an undiscovered Western retreat, The Retreat & Links at Silvies Valley Ranch, a storied operating cattle ranch and resort located in Eastern Oregon, is just that.

Opening in May 2018 for its first official season, the boutique eco-resort merges luxury and relaxation with an authentic Western ranch experience. The Retreat & Links at Silvies Valley Ranch brings the Western mystique of the region to an intimate scale, full-service resort complete with lodging, two reversible 18-hole golf courses, unique dining options, exclusive outdoor experiences, a spa, and a private airstrip for guests looking to fly directly onto the property.

The Links at Silvies Valley Ranch provides visitors with a one-of-a-kind golf experience as it is home to two reversible 18-hole courses, the Hankins and Craddock courses, designed by renowned golf course architect Dan Hixson. Play clockwise one day and counterclockwise the next to get the full appreciation for the Western landscape and architectural brilliance. Players can also take in Chief Egan, a 9-hole, par-3 mountain meadow course, to complete the golf experience. And, in July, Silvies Valley Ranch will open the much anticipated McVeigh's Gauntlet, a stunning 7-hole challenge course carved into a razorback mountain, where guests will go to settle bets and take in the dramatic mountainous landscape. Together, these courses offer an unending number of golf experiences, bringing players face-to-face with the majesty and serenity of the West. It's "Simply Amazing."

Perhaps the most unique and whimsical offering in golf, Silvies Valley Ranch brings guests face to face with its world-famous goat caddies. Born and bred on the ranch, the professionally trained American Range Goat caddies are available for hire on McVeigh's Gauntlet when it opens July 10. Saddled up with a custom-designed goat caddie backpack that carries drinks, golf balls, tees, and a few clubs, the goats join players on McVeigh's Gauntlet, bringing an entirely new sense of entertainment and fun to the golf experience. Give them a few peanuts along the way and they'll refrain from giving b-aaaa-d advice.
