

2020 Best Golf Course

The winner for Best Course goes to Pebble Beach Golf Links. Not often do things in life live up to expectations. Pebble Beach Golf Links is as storied of a golf course as they come, and our round didn't disappoint. All the improvements made leading up to hosting the 2019 US Open Championship pushed Pebble Beach Golf Links past the competition and into the winner's circle!

2020 Best New Golf Course

Opened June 1st in the middle of the COVID-19 pandemic, nothing could stop the Sheep Ranch from winning Best New Course, not even 2020. Coore and Crenshaw returned to Bandon Dunes to build an epic links course along the Oregon Pacific Coast. From myth and legend, Coore and Crenshaw created a masterpiece that must be experienced!

2020 Best Golf App

The app that caught the attention of Golf Aficionado this year is one every golfer should have. The GHIN Mobile app, the official app of the Golf Handicap Information Network. With the new handicap system, GHIN decided to launch a completely new app full of features and capabilities to balance the scale among golfers worldwide! Still, work to be done, but we look forward to future updates.

2020 Best Golf Product

The staff at Golf Aficionado spends as much time as possible playing golf, big surprise! We have a saying, look good, and play well. The good looking part is always easier than playing well. This year we had the helping hand of a Rapsodo MLM (Mobile Launch Monitor). Winner of the year's product of the year, the Rapsodo MLM is hands down the best MLM on the market under $500.

2020 Best Golf Resort

In a year where we traveled to some of the best golf destinations on the planet like Pebble Beach, Bandon Dunes, and others, nobody could match Silvie's. A working goat & cattle ranch with an 18-hole reversible championship golf course and so much more. When all we wanted to do was forget about everything, Silvie's Valley Ranch is the only place we found that allowed us to do just that.
